

Your Faithfulness Shall Be Rewarded

Thanks again for a great laugh! We look forward to helping more people discover the healing power of laughter and hereby covenant to replenish the internet, that you may have joy and rejoicing in your posterity.

Your Preparatory Guide to Enter...

The Holy Interview

A comprehensive guide for faithful guests preparing to enter the Holy Interview and receive their Video Endowment, through the Skype.

Initiatory Ordinances:

Consider your audience's interests, wants, and needs.

They are uncorrelated Mormons or ex-mormons who are interested in learning interesting facts about the one true church.

They could also use a good laugh because their lives got twist-turned upside-down and it's likely they are going through hell right now.

Have 5-7 good talking points ready to make during the call.

Please provide the interview workers with any promotional material, such as your bio, summary of your book, and any images of it and yourself.

Please be seated, alert, and ready to begin your video endowment by installing Skype, installing it, & adding us to your contacts by the time your session is scheduled to begin.

Receiving Your Video Endowment

Remain calm no matter how bizarre and uncomfortable things get.

Remember that lots of other really smart people do this all the time and don't think it's weird so if you're not totally edified it's just you.

Have 5-7 good talking points ready to make during the call. Our host will prompt you when it is time to discuss each of them.

Should you forget the talking points, a matron is available for convenience in working through the podcast.
